LEO RAY'S EXCELLENT RACE

DEFEATS PRINCE HERMIS NARROWLY IN LA TONIA'S PRINCIPAL CONTEST OF THE DAY.

Old Rosebud Falls Lame Again-Jockey Garner Guides Four Winners-Jockey Mott Is Injured -Track Gossip.

Cincinnati, O., June 21.—The mile handican featuring this afterneon's card at Latonia developed an upset when Leo Ray beat the overwhelming favorite, Prince Hermis, by a neck after a well contested drive. The three-year-old was in receipt of ten pounds actual weight from Prince Hermis and it proved a big factor in the result. The time of the race was exceptionally good considering the dull state of the track, and the colt's showing this afterneon was probably the best of his career, for he closed a good gap in spite of being forced to lose much ground by racing wide on the turns.

sidering the dull state of the track, and the celt's showing this afternoon was probably the best of his career, for he closed a good gap in spite of being forced to lose much ground by racing wide on the turns.

Small fields were again the rule in all the races, but the betting was of good proportions. The attendance was generous for Monday, Several upsets came during the afternoon, Fidget's defeat in the third being one of them. The poor riding she received and the interference from which she suffered aided in her defeat, but it is doubtful if she could have beaten Commauretta, which ran to her best form this afternoon.

Old Rosebud, which gave much promise of standing training has gone amiss again, and the injury this time is said to be of such a serious nature that he will probably be retired for good. Trainer Weir thinks that the seriousness of the injury will not be determined fully for at least two days.

Jockey Garner again came into the limetight by piloting his first four mounts to victory. He began his success with Dr. Moore and followed in succession with Commauretta, Leo Ray and Maznik. On Dr. Moore, Leo Ray and Maznik he was forced to exert his best skill and only headed the contender in cach case in the last few strides.

Jockey Mott was painfully injured about the foot as a result of coming into contact with the fence while astride Lucky R. in the fifth race.

E. B. Elkins has purchased from George J. Long the colt Harold, which he shipped with others to Hamilton.

W. F. Keith bid Commauretta up $200 over herentered price of $700 and raised Maznik $300 over his entered price of $600 and raised Maznik $300 over his entered price of $600 and raised Maznik $300 over his entered price of $700. He failed in cach instance to get the horse.

John W. Schorr's racers will be shipped from here id Saratega after the close of the Latonia meeting. Luke McLuke, Freglegs, Lindeuthal and other cracks of this stable, it is expected, will be in good form by the time that the Saratoga racing begins and they should racing begins and they should account for many purses.

Trainer T. Hodge, in charge of the E. B. Elkins horses, shipped the consignment to Hamilton this afternoon. Jockey F. Murphy has been engaged by this stable to do the riding. In the same car went Kate K., owned by F. Stanton. Mistress Jack will also accompany the consignment and goes to George Swain, who will race her on the Canadian half mile tracks.

Fred Auerbach returned this morning from Jacksonville and will remain until Saturday next.

P. T., Detroit, Mich. Prohibition was placed see ad when Dune Site was displaced in race 20993. H. M. B., Hot Springs, Ark. Where the intention obvious, settlement should follow without quib bling.

H. K., St. Louis, Mo. Apparently the return was $176.50, but the matter is not stated as clearly as it might be.

J. M., Chicago, Various jockeys rode Roseben, but its probable that Frank O'Neill rode him to victory oftener than any other jockey. W. Shaw also rode him frequently. Mary Ann K. has won twice this year.

WANDA PITZER'S NEWTOWN SELLING STAKES.

Takes the Main Race at Jamaica Easily-Two Odds On Favorites Beaten-Hermis Jr. Again.

New York, June 21.—Barring the fourth race, the Newtown Selling Stakes for sprinters, the program at Jamaica today consisted of races for the cheaper class of horses. Spirited contests resulted and there were several upsets. Chief of these were the defeats of Prince of Como and O'Sullivan, both of which were quoted at odds-on. The speedy, but non-staying Prince of Como's defeat by Tea Caddy was unlooked for, as the Cochran colt was out in front, but quit badly in the stretch when challenged by Tea Caddy and lost second place in the last few strides to the fast coming Lily Heavens, O'Sullivan, the other odds-on choice to go down to defeat, was always outpaced by the improved Hermis Jr., which led from start to finish. After racing Ray o'Light into defeat he easily withstood the challenge of O'Sullivan in the final eighth.

The followers of jockey Buxton had a good day, as that rider piloted three winners during the afternoon, all of whom were at fairly remunerative prices.

as that rider piloted three winners during the afternoon, all of whom were at fairly remunerative prices.

Wanda Pitzer proved best in the Newtown Selling Stakes, which only attracted a field of three starters. Wanda Pitzer sprinted into an early lead and held Harry Shaw safe at the end. The latter would have been a more serious contender had Lowder been able to keep him away from the inner rail.

Jockey Troxler, by showing his usual alertness at the post, was responsible for Uncle Jimmie's victory in the fifth. Away flying, he just lasted long enough to win.

The Cummings law, recently passed by congress,
which compels owners shipping thoroughbreds to pay a pro-rata insurance if they declare the value of horses to be over $100. became operative today and E. W. Heffner, shipping some of the Hallenbeck racers to Canada, was the first horseman here to be affected.

S. D. Riddle owner of Cactus Bud, will arrive here shortly for the purpose of getting together a stable of jumpers. He is now at Brookline, Mass, E. T. Colton, accompanied by Frank Moore, was an arrival from Latonia today. He brought four horses, Edward B. Parsons was also an arrival with three. Both strings are stabled at Jamaica, J. D. Adkins has arrived at Aqueduct with the Mackenzie stable of racers, including Helen Barbee and Buckhorn.

The two-year-olds in the James Butler stable have been more or less on the ailing list all spring, many of them having been coughing. This perhaps accounts for their lack of participation in two-yearold events.

Ed Heffner will leave for Hamilton tomorrow with H. C. Hallenbeck's good three-year-old. The Byrne will accompany the stable and will have the

L. S. Thompson, in whose name the H. P.

was held by R. J. Allison of Oklaboma. The lad's

CAPITAL RACING AT CONNAUGHT PARK.

Blume Defeats Pesky in the Ottawa Electric Railway Stakes—Big Crowd Present,

Ottawa, Ont., June 21.—The Connaught Park Jockey Club offered a good program to its patrons this afternoon. It was ladies' day, the second of these occasions during the meeting, and a large crowd turned out to witness the sport. Apart from the Ottawa Electric Railway Stakes, the Directors of the race, leading from barrier's rise and winning in rather easy fashion by a length from Pesky which managed to get home a nose in advance of King Neptune. Acton, who had the mount on the winner, had Pesky in close quarters in the home stretch and, after he dismounted, he was warned by the officials not to attempt to file any but his own horse in the future.

The conditions of the Directors' Cup called for Canadian-breds, to be ridden by maiden jockeys. It furnished an interesting contest, in which Meissen came from behind and, finishing gamely, won going away.

Recoil came back after her good performance of the other day and beat Celto in the third race. When entering the homestretch Celto, which had made the early pace, forced Recoil wide, as a result of which Jockey Turner was suspended for the remainder of the meeting.

Joseph Murphy and William Chapman left for Port Rowa Saturday night to put in a few days fishing until the opening of the Hamilton meeting.

ELMENDORF YEARLINGS GO EAST.

Lexington, Ky., June 21.—The thoroughbred yearling property of the estate of the late James B. Haggin were shipped from Elmendorf Farm this afternoon in three cars in charge of George Miller to Sheepshead Bay, New York, where they are to go into the Haggin stable on Neck Road and there to be sold by auction at noon Monday, June 28, under the auspices of the Powers-Hunter Company, with George A. Bain, of Lexington, as auctioneer, and John H. Morgan, of the Elmendorf Farm office, as the business agent for the farm.

The yearlings number thirty-six, of which fourteen are colts and twenty-two are fillies. Twenty-eight of the thirty-six are said by several of the men on the farm to be over the average of what the farm has produced in the sixteen years of its history under the Haggin ownership. A consensus guess of these men is that the average price per head at the sale will be not less than $1,100. These men of the farm are also of the opinion that the chestnut colt by Star Shoot—Hamburg Belle will prove to be the star of the sale. He is a half-brother to King Hamburg and is said to be one of the finest colts ever foaled at Elmendorf. The chestnut colt by Watercress, the last of the get of that great sire, out of Enterprise, is not far behind the Hamburg Belle colt in appearance. Among the fillies, Tradition's daughter, by Star Shoot, is the queen, according to the farm folks. The colts by Ballot out of Majolica and Muriel are fine types and should bring good prices. The list of the yearlings is as follows:

Bay colt by Hessian—Stone Nellie (dam of Stone Street).

Watercress II. is by Watercress—Pearl V., and Votary is by Voter—Ecstacy. Both of these youngsters have been highly tried and are said to be fast, but they have never been raced.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Frank R. Lanterman, whose body was found floating off College Point, L. I., disappeared from the Madison Hotel, New York City, June 2.

Shortly before she won the New Oaks at the recent Nemarket extra meeting the good filly Snow Marten was mated with the American-bred horse Sir Martin.

Victor Schaumberg secretary of the Coney Island ckey Club, has been appointed racing secretary of the Empire City Racing Association. He has oved the offices of the association down-town to the East Forty-first street.

The cause of a good deal of the bumping at the start of races at Jamaica on the backstretch is the soft and uneven footing near the rail. This causes the horses on the inside to bear out and in some instances the outer horses get the blame.

P. Lowder, an apprentice, who has been showing excellent form in the saddle in the east, is sixteen years old, weights eighty-five pounds and halls from Terrell, Tex. His apprentice allowance will expire next October. Lowder has strength out of proportion to his weight.

C. H. Berryman, manager of the lete. L. P.

C. H. Berryman, manager of the late J. B. Haggin's Elmendorf Stud, was a visitor at Latonia a few days ago, being on his way to New York where the last of the yearlings raised at this place will be disposed of. The remaining stock at Elmendorf embracing seventy broodmares and the three sires Hessien, Ballot and Sain, will be sold next autumn at the Lexington sales.

he sold next autumn at the Lexington sales. In order to insure the detection of rough riding at Jamaica James McLaughlin has been added to the list of patrol judges. As an old jockey he is conversant with the tricks of the trade and will be placed in front of the start. J. L. Hall, who has occupied that position previously, will be stationed on the upper turn and E. H. Hanna will supervise the riding from the head of the stretch. This will leave small chance for rough work to go unpunished. leave small chance for rough work to go unpanished. At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Clubheld Friday the suspension of J. W. Hedrick's trainer's license was terminated. His entries will be received from now on. The approval of the stewards of the Jockey Club was granted the Empire City Racing Association to transfer its racing dates to the race course of the Westchester Racing Association from July 14 to 24 and to the race course of the Queens County Jockey Club from July 26 to 31 and the appointment of officials was approved.

Jockey J. Kederis, who has been on the ailing list for some time past, has improved and has begun exercising horses again although he has announced that he will make no attempt to take mounts until the last of the coming week. He will then probably have the mount on Leochares in the Quickstep Handicap. There has never been anything serious the matter with the California rider, only a severe cold caused by too much exertion in trying to keep down to lighter than his customary weight.
